Elizabeth "Rosie"
The first of the "Rosies" was a simple woman, plain, but she was a woman of great heart. Her children, her friends, her neighbors, all loved her. She was a woman of great heart. For Georgia Visitor
Mrs. Frank H. Dillard will be in the country club, when she will entertain informally for Mrs. Walter Hart, of Columbus, Ga., her daughter, who will arrive shortly for a visit in the Dillard home.

For Mrs. Goodman
Madame and Joseph and Charles Heinz will be entertainers at a party given in the home of Mrs. J. H. Dillard, on March 13, in the home of the former, honoring Mrs. Al. Goodman, formerly Miss Lillian, Captain of Vicksburg.

For Mrs. Burrum
Mrs. J. Frank Walker will entertain today in a bridge luncheon, honoring Mrs. W. L. Durrum, of Tulsa, Okla., who is visiting her mother, Mrs. William R. Stone, Mrs. Walker in company with her home, 1229 South Norfolk avenue.

Mary Garden Will Bring Company
All notes have been mailed, the operas chosen and the casts selected for the appearance of the Chicago Opera association in Tulsa. In accordance with the famous organization's established policy of short visits, while away from Chicago, the engagement here will be a limited one, but one in which the strongest resources of the company in both its Italian and French contingents are concentrated.

Wherever the Chicago company has appeared, its tremendous success has been due to its adherence to the "star system" in its performances. In Chicago, in New York and on tour, the idea of putting all-star arrays of artists into the casts has served to make each performance doubly and triply attractive. The same policy will be followed in the coming coast-to-coast spring tour, which will embrace the same casts with which these operas were presented in Chicago and New York.

In Massene's brilliant and colorful "Thais," which will be the first performance of the Tulsa season, General Director Mary Garden will have in the main part, one of her most striking roles, and one in which she is internationally famous. Hector

Hunt's Daily Store News

VOL. III. TUESDAY, MARCH 8, 1921. NO. 8.

Sale of Women's Summer Weight Underwear

The well known Harvard Mills and Kayser makes are featured in this special event.

WE ADVISE you to buy all the underwear you can afford and put it away for future use, if necessary, because the price of every piece makes it a find.

The values offered are truly remarkable—all merchandise is clean and fresh and up to the regular standard of our stocks. We are able to make this offer because the lines offered are short in sizes and are to be closed out entirely.

- Harvard Mills
Fine gauge tailored garments—band tops, wide knee, open style. We have sizes 34, 36, 40, 42. Regular price are $1.75 and $2. —Special, $1.19
- Kayser Lisle Unions
In low neck, no sleeve, ankle length; pink and white; exceptional quality. —Special, $1.29
- Kayser Silk Teddies
